

August 3rd, 2014

Dear Kerry;

Your letter of July 20, with the enclosed questions, arrived in good time. I shall attempt to answer most of them over the next few weeks so that you have all the information when you return from England...as well as adding a bit of information to some of the points that we have already talked about. Hopefully, some of this will be helpful, and give a few sincere researchers some new ideas about where they might look for more details.

The undersea base entrance off Malibu comes to mind, as I have a lot of information about such places from the 1930s to the present. You may remember the actor Chad Everett? He had witnessed a number of rather interesting events with craft off Malibu - even reporting one such sighting to the police. When he refused to shut-up about it, and tried to push the issue, he lost his job as a TV star on the show 'Med Center' and was never